

Many real estate
people will tell you they're number one.

Believe them all.

We won't be applying
for that position.

That chair is saved for you.
Makes more sense, doesn't it?

What gets a property bought or sold in real life is the intelligence, devotion and linkability of your broker. One lion-hearted broker (we have ten), and the undiluted personal time, thought, marketing, and hunting done solely for you. And on the company list, are you in the top five, or the top five hundred?

At BJ Adams and Company, we're not number one, you are. That's a better big.
